Supply Stool

A practical addition to every home. The Supply Stool is a versatile piece that balances utility with a contemporary, considered aesthetic.

Crafted from powder-coated aluminium, its sturdy two-tier form is softened by rounded edges and a bold colour palette. Use as a step stool throughout the home, or style as a side table, casual seat, or display for everyday objects. Designed in our New Zealand studio by Haydn Nixon.

Please note: For use as a step stool, the anti-slip tape supplied must be correctly applied to the stepping surfaces before use.
